Foreword

Most immigration courses are written by lawyers, for lawyers, in language that punishes anyone who is not already a lawyer. This is the opposite. We wrote it for the immigrant herself, for her cousin who is helping her translate, and for the small tax preparer who wants to add immigration intake to her practice.

Every form is explained the way you would explain it to a smart 12-year-old. We say what the form is, why it exists, who needs it, when to file, what it costs, how long it takes, the most common mistakes, and what to do when something goes wrong.

We add things no one else gives you: real rejection examples and how to fix them, sample interview questions in the wording USCIS officers actually use, cultural translation for Haitian and Latino households, anti-scam guide on notario fraud, decision trees for which form to file when, and pricing for tax preparers who want to add immigration intake services.

This is the free sample. Module 0. The 4 pages that come before the curriculum starts.

If this lands well for you, the full 46-page class is at jrickssfinancialservices.com/immigration-master-class/. Three tiers. 30-day money-back guarantee.

Module 0: How to Use This Master Class

Welcome. You are holding the most plain-spoken, complete, and culturally honest immigration class anyone has ever published in the United States.

Most immigration courses are written by lawyers, for lawyers, in language that punishes anyone who is not already a lawyer. This is the opposite of that. We wrote this for the immigrant herself, for her cousin who is helping her translate, for the small tax preparer who wants to add immigration intake to her practice, and for the new paralegal who is starting her career today.

Every form is explained the way you would explain it to a smart 12-year-old. We say what the form is, why it exists, who needs it, when to file it, what it costs, how long it takes, what the most common mistakes are, and what to do when something goes wrong.

Then we give you the things no one else gives you:

- Real rejection examples and exactly how to fix them.
- Sample interview questions in the wording USCIS officers actually use.
- Cultural translation. What does "marriage" mean in a Haitian or Latino household? When the officer asks about your wedding, you answer differently than someone from Iowa. We tell you how.
- Anti-scam guide. The notario fraud that destroys families. The signs to watch for. The way to talk to a client who has been scammed before.
- Cost breakdowns by family size and case type, in 2026 dollars.
- Decision trees. Should I file the I-130 first or the I-485 at the same time? Should I do K-1 or marry abroad? You will know how to choose.
- For tax preparers: how to price immigration intake services, where the line is between authorized form preparation and unauthorized practice of law, and when to refer to an attorney.

Promises we make to you

- We use plain language. If we have to use a legal word, we explain it.
- We never make you guess. If a section says "check with your attorney," we tell you when and why.
- We update this class every year. Immigration rules change. Old advice can hurt you.
- We say no when no is the right answer. There are cases this class will not solve. We tell you when to walk away or get a lawyer.

How to study this class

Every chapter ends with three things: a one-page checklist, a short quiz with the answer key on the next page, and a real client story (names changed). The story is the most important part. It is what an officer or judge actually saw, and what we did about it.

If you only have one weekend, read Module 0, Module 1, the chapter on the form you need, and Module 12 on avoiding scams. That is enough to protect your family or your client.

If you are studying to use this in a tax practice, read every module. Then read the appendices. The country notes and the document checklists are what your competitors do not have.

Want the full 46-page class?

You just read Module 0. The class has 14 modules covering every major USCIS form, plus a 50-question final exam, a glossary, a 2026 fee table, and country-specific notes for Haiti, Dominican Republic, Mexico, El Salvador, Honduras, Cameroon, Nigeria, and more.
